BENJAMIN BRADSHAW.

Death of This Much Esteemed Citizen Near Pembroke.

Mr. Benjamin Bradshaw, a well known Pembroke farmer and influential citizen, died at 3 o'clock,
a. m., Wednesday morning, after an illness of several months of cancer of the stomach. He had not enjoyed the best of health for a year or more, but it was not until a few days ago that his condition grew alarming.

Mr. Bradshaw was a man held in the highest esteem by a host of friends and in his demise that community has lost one of its best citizens. He was about 60 years old and had been a member of the Baptist church for many years.

He is survived by seven children
—four sons and three daughters.
The interment took place yesterday afternoon in the family burying ground.

TWO HIGHWAYMEN

Hold up Amos Hayden, Securing
Some Cash.

Mr. Amos Hayden was held up in the eastern suburbs of the city last Monday night and relieved of $1.35 in small change. He was enroute to a party, and when about opposite Dr. K. W. Ware's residence, two negroes suddenly appeared from the road side, and with drawn pistols demanded his money. They covered him with pistols and "went through his pockets."

Barr at Madisonville a few days ago, was arrested at Pembroke and taken back to Hopkins county. At the examining trial Bone was held over to circuit court. In default of bond of $450 he was remanded to jail.

"Citizen" Wants a Park

MR. EDITOR:

I wish to call the attention of our city fathers to the old city cemetery
at the West end of Thirteenth street. Why not turn that into a city park, as it looks like an old deserted snake den. If any of our old pioneers' remains are there remove them to Hopewell cemetery. The population of Hopkinsville now demands a city park, and as this place overlooks some fine country and scenery, why not turn it into a park? Respectfully,

A CITIZEN.

COMMITTEE COMING.

Strenuous Efforts Being Made
to Prevent Investigation.

The Board Has Asked an Audience
For a Business Talk About Asylum Matters.

The Legislative Committee on Charitable Institutions will next Tuesday start out on an inspection tour of the various Asylums of the State. It is not known what day the committee will visit the Asylum here, or to what extent it will go into the investigation of the rottenness that has existed in the asylum.

Sworn charges were laid before the State Inspector and the Governor nearly a year ago, affidavits being transmitted by the Board of Commissioners. As those endeavoring to cover up the scandals are claiming that charges have not been formally prepared, the conclusion is that the General Assembly will not have access to the State records. Within the last few days, the Board of Commissioners, the entire board concurring, have submitted a printed official report to the Legislature, calling attention to the un-investigated charges of immorality, gambling and waste of public funds.
These charges from the official board of control are now before the Legislature. In addition, the officers of the Board have formally requested of the visiting committee an audience, and it is believed that the committee will complete the investigation begun by the Christian county grand jury at the time the wholesale indictments were returned against the appointive officers
last summer.

The most humiliating and disgraceful spectacle ever seen in the politics of Kentucky, is to witness the organized and persistent efforts being made by State officers and others controlled by them, to keep in office confessed gamblers, who have disgraced themselves and the Democratic party.

We believe there are enough good men, clean men and honest men in the Senate of Kentucky to take a firm stand against the confirmation of unworthy men in places of honor and trust in the asylums of the State.

The pardon of Louisville gamblers was bad enough, but it is a still worse trial of public patience to infest the eleemosynary institutions of the State with men who have been punished for gambling in the very walls of the asylum and to ask a Senate of honorable men to place
the stamp of approval upon the disgraceful performance.

These are plain words, but it is no time to mince words.

When the committee comes next week, if it means business it can in two hours find recorded evidence enough to prove that the Board is right when it takes its stand for the people of Kentucky and against law-breaking and immorality in the institution they have sworn to conduct, guided only by a sense of duty, without one cent of pay. These men have the confidence and respect of all classes of people in Hopkinsville: They represent the best people of the community and some of them have near and dear friends in the asylum. They have no motive to misrepresent, and they have charged open and flagrant violations of the law, over their own signatures.
Gentlemen of the committee, it is up to you.

DEATH

Claims One of Hopkinsville's
Most Loved Women.

Mrs. Belle Anderson Passed Away
Yesterday Morning After Lingering Illness.

Mrs. Belle Moore Anderson died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock at her home on East Sixteenth street. Her death was not unexpected, as she had been very low for several days.
About six weeks ago, while walking across the floor in her room, she stepped on a pin which pierced through the sole of her slipper and entered the ball of her foot. The wound thus received seemed slight and but little attention was paid to it at the time. A few days afterwards her limb began to pain her and Doctor Anderson applied the usual remedies of the profession in such cases, but without avail. The wound grew worse and worse, and on the 15th of this month Doctors Blakey and Woodward were called in. The wound was so malignant that an operation was deemed necessary. Her physicians found shortly afterwards that her whole system was becoming poisoned and every effort was used to stop its progress. For a number of days
she was unable to retain any food or stimulants and she gradually grew worse and worse. All hopes of her recovery were abandoned by friends and physicians Monday night. She lingered until yesterday morning, when she quietly passed away, surrounded by her family and devoted friends in attendance at her bedside.

Mrs. Anderson was married to Dr. Anderson on the 14th of last July. She was one of the most popular belles of this city, where she was reared, beautiful and accomplished, and possessing in an eminent degree such charms of manner that endeared her to all who came under her influence. She was a member of the Christian church from childhood and always took an active part in the work of her church.

A feeling of sadness pervades the entire community at the untimely end of a life that hitherto was all sunshine and had such bright hopes for future usefulness.
The hearts of our people go out in sympathy for her devoted husband, sorrowing mother and loving brothers, who now walk in the dark shadow of death.
Funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church.

Hopson-Williams.

Mr. J. B. Hopson and Miss Florence Williams, young people living near Clardy, North Christian, were married at the home of the bride
last Sunday.

NEVER LOST

His Presence of Mind Though
He Was on Fire.

Mr. Walter Kelly Saves His Life
by Knowing What to Do.

Last Tuesday night Mr. Walter
Kelly, by rare presence of mind, saved himself from what might have been a horrible death.
About 9 o'clock, after he had taken off his coat and vest before retiring for the night, he concluded he would go into an adjoining room for a drink of water.
Before going into the room he put on his bath robe of cotton flannel for fear of taking cold. There was no light in the room and in attempting to strike a match on the bottom of his shoe the match broke in two,
the burning end striking the robe near the bottom. Almost in a second Mr. Kelly was in a flame from head to foot. Comprehending his danger he at once fell to the floor and rolling over and over succeeded in smothering the flames. He does not show any signs of having been in danger save the singeing of his hair on back of his head. He thinks it is not out of place for his many friends to offer congratulations for his narrow escape.

CASUALTY AT CADIZ.

Mrs. Wilson Sustains Injuries
Which May Result Fatally.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, mother of Mr.
J. S. Wilson, the Cadiz merchant, happened to an accident Tuesday night which may have a fatal termination.

She stepped out upon the porch
when she slipped on the ice and fell six feet to the ground.

When picked up she was unconscious and on examination by physicians it was found that her skull had been fractured, and one hip broken. Mrs. Wilson is about 65 years old and the chances for her recovery are considered extremely doubtful.

GENIUS AND COMPLEXION.

Large Percentage of Notable Men Who are Dark of Feature.

New that the Dictionary of National Biography is available, Mr. Hays-Collins has been studying the peculiarities of our greatest geniuses of every kind to the number of 100,000 men and women, by far the greatest proportion being men. One interesting fact brought out, says Cassell's Magazine, is that 49 per cent. were of dark complexion, as against 23 per cent. of blondes and 28 per cent. of intermediate or brown-haired persons. Another is that our popular notion of great men deriving their ability from their mothers is incorrect. It is often their fathers are clever, but probably their mothers are women of character, and assist them in that respect. Genius is not so likely to spring from a young as a mature father, upward of 35 years old. It is more likely to come among the first and the last than the middle children of the family, and in large families than in small—that is to say, in families of over six. Precocity may be shown by children in their games or classes, and some geniuses exhibit it in this way, but most of them are not good "sealers" or playmates in the ordinary sense because they are too much interested in their own lines of thought. Precocity is chiefly noticeable in the artistic order of minds. Many geniuses are graduates in college, and far afterward healthy, strong and long-lived. A large percentage of our greatest men and women have come from the educated classes, born in America, and some traveled abroad as youths. The great mind of Isaac Newton, born in Devon and East Angles; Leonardo da Vinci, the southeast about Waterloo, and from Derby and Alton in Scotland; Alfred, among the first of all in genius, born in Alcester and the best southward to Edinburgh and Glasgow, Larack, Ayr and Dumfries.

WHEN THE AUTOS PASS.

Little Boy Explains Modern Methods to His Grandfather.

"No, grandfather, we must not cross the highway just yet."

"And why not, my child?"

"Because, grandfather, the safety among the first and the last than the middle children of the family, and in large families than in small—that is to say, in families of over six. Precocity may be shown by children in their games or classes, and some geniuses exhibit it in this way, but most of them are not good "sealers" or playmates in the ordinary sense because they are too much interested in their own lines of thought. "But can't we get across before it gets here?"

"Not on your life, grandfather. The last man who tried it was thrown across your yard under a tree and into a greenhouse. Look! There it goes!"

"I saw nothing but a whirl of yellow dust."

"That was it. Come now. No, we must wait again. The yellow flag is up in the other direction. That means a race. There they go! See them?"

"I saw nothing but more dust."

"They were too quick for you. That was a bunch of millionaires. They get dreadfully reckless. One of them was picked up what was left of one of them in our front yard, and there wasn't enough of him to fill a peck measure."

"Can't we cross now?"

"Dear, no! All the yellow flags are up and all the red balls are up, and all the signal men are signaling. They are coming from both ways. If we have real good luck we may see a collision. We get a commission at our expense to prevent a collision to the corner."

"But how will we get across?"

"I guess we will have to walk up to the covered bridge at the corner of the next block."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mosquitoes Do The Work.

Yellow fever is not conveyed by clothing, bedding or merchandise soiled by contact with those sick with the disease, but a house may be said to be infected with yellow fever only when there are present in it mosquitoes capable of conveying the parasite of the disease, and that the spread of yellow fever can be most effectively controlled by measures directed to the destruction of mosquitoes and the prevention of the sick against the bites of these insects.

Hopkinsville Kentucky.
Published Tuesday and Friday Mornings
BY W. M. MEACHAM.
TERMS: $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.
Office: 100 SOUTH MAIN STREET.
JANUARY 31, 1902.

ANNOUNCEMENT!
MR. W. M. MEACHAM, Editor of the Hopkinsville Kentucky, is now receiving a large number of orders for the January issue of the Announcement, which is a valuable paper for the farmer and the merchant.

Prince Henry will be in Louisville all an hour next Sunday.

It should be written "W. Santia-schley" no change of initials, you see.

The Pope of Rome is in good health, notwithstanding the efforts of correspondents to have him the reverse. He is looking forward to the anniversary of the twenty-fifth year of his pontificate.

By a vote of 8 to 7 the House Committee on Commerce last Tuesday made a favorable report on a bill for the Government construct and maintaining a Pacific cable.

The Kentucky House Committee on suffrage and elections has reported favorably on the bill to remove the roster, log cabin and other party devices from election ballots.

Wherever he goes, it may be said that the people do things "on the Schley" on a large scale. This is not put out as a pun "on the fly," but the record of a fact.

Admiral Schley is doing Nashville today. People who heard here the roar of cannon during the battle of Fort Donelson may imagine they hear a noise of the same sort to-day—but hardly.

A bill has been introduced in the Kentucky House of Representatives to make Gen. Lee's birthday a legal holiday. Legal holidays increase in number every year and aren't there danger of having too many of them?

The cigarette question bobbed up in the Kentucky House again last Tuesday. About half of the sixty days of the present Legislature have expired, and our solons had better take the capital and cigarette-bills and get ready for the passage of bills that will pass.

Representative Ed Parker has offered a bill to abolish the Goebel Reward Commission. Parker was sent to the Legislature from Laurel and Rockcastle to "represent" the Republicans of those two counties. As Democrats rule the roost, this bill will doubtless die unborn.

The "Umbria," one of the Cuadriga liners, talked with her sister ship, "Eutracia," for three hours and a half the other day. The longest distance at which they talked was 108 nautical miles, and 32 miles the shortest. These two ships have had other conversations at about the same distance, by wireless telegraph.

Representative Crumpacker's plan to reduce representation in the Southern States where the negro has been disfranchised is opposed by two Republican members of the House—Boring and Irwin—but they propose federal control of elections—which is equivalent to disfranchising white Democrats. Crumpacker is going to make an effort for a caucus next week.

"A United States Consul General Hanna figures in the news from Mexico. Another United States Consul Hanna frequently sends in reports from some European point. Solicitor Hanna has cut a big figure in the Schley case and the sun couldn't go to rest without having named on Uncle Marcus Aurora Borealis Hanna in some prominent role. There may be nothing in a name but the tribe of Hanna appears to have a remarkable capacity for getting there—Louisville Times.

What's the matter with Robert C. Hanna, the Republican Representative in the Kentucky Legislature from Lewis county, and his way of fighting there?

An Ancient Foe
To health and happiness is Schley's motto. He is a man of many talents, and he is a man of many friends. He is a man of many talents, and he is a man of many friends. He is a man of many talents, and he is a man of many friends.

Hot's Sarsaparilla
and Hot's
will rid you of all skin and blood diseases, as they have rid thousands.

In the United States Supreme Court the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, plaintiff, against T. R. Eubank, gained a decision reversing that of the Supreme Court of Kentucky. The case involved the validity of the Kentucky constitutional provision affecting the long and short haul clause of the Interstate Commerce Commission laws, regarding arbitrary charges for freightage over various interstate distances. The Supreme Court held that a state had the right to regulate rates within its borders, but that its province could not extend into another state, thus coming into conflict with the law enacted by Congress.

A man in Louisville last week brought suit against a telegraph company for being swindled out of a wife by its telling his intended to meet him at Nashville instead of Louisville. The telegram was sent last January and the woman married another man. Wonder if the other man has any "regrets" to express about the fault of the telegraph company, now that the honey moon is well over?

Senator Watson (Dem.) last Tuesday introduced in the upper branch of the Kentucky Legislature a bill giving to the court of appeals the election of the State Librarian. The bill is similar to the one introduced in the House by Representative J. H. Brown (Rep.) if we mistake not. The best thing the Democrats can do is to keep everything they can out of the hands of the court of appeals.

It sometimes looks as if law is what the party in power wants it to be. The lawyers in Congress say that Congress has no power to enact laws that interfere with State local elections or State constitutions. Some of the Republicans think, or think they think, that the election of Congressmen partakes of the nature of a Federal election, and that Congress has full authority to enact as it may deem proper.

Scribner's Magazine for February contains discussions of questions of the greatest national importance; short fiction by clever writers, beautifully illustrated; several art articles; an installment of F. Hopkinson Smith's series of artist life in New York; and poems by Winston Churchill, Edith Wharton and others.

Admiral Schley was given a genuine Kentucky welcome in Louisville Wednesday and Thursday, in spite of the arctic weather. There was a round of receptions and entertainments, the General Assembly adjourning yesterday to go to Louisville to assist in paying honor to the hero of Santiago.

"Rev. Dr. Parkhurst evidently realizes that he is played out as a reformer, and in declaring that only the souls of the truly good are immortal, he takes a new tack to get himself talked about,"—Louisville Times.

It is now said that Judge Taft got back to the United States in apparently good health. The papers must have been laboring under the impression that he was "sick of his job" in the Philippines.

The Court of Appeals has refused a new rehearing in the Pratt contest, and Attorney General Breckinridge will have to vacate at once, or as soon as the mandate can be issued.

Prince Henry will make only thirty minute stops in Louisville and Cincinnati, on March 2 Hopkinsville has been cut out of his itinerary entirely.

It is given out from Washington that Collector Barnett is to hold his job.

HAPPY HOLLOW
Marriage That Deserves More Than Passing Notice.
The marriage of Ben Hardin and Mrs. Nannie Simms in Happy Hollow last week, deserves more than a passing notice, since this was Mr. Hardin's fifth trip on the sufficed waters of matrimony and Mrs. Simms' third. Three of Mr. Hardin's wives and six of Mrs. Simms' are dead. The peculiar feature of this last marriage is that this same couple were to have been first married some twenty years ago. The wedding night was set and all preparations made, when, for some reason, the bride-to-be expressed her preference for another by marrying the night before the date set for Hardin's happy event.—Hancock Clarion.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it has no equal." — J. Early Hinkley, Trenton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Jury in Morrison Murder Case Fail to Agree.

The jury at Nashville in the case of Will Morrison, charged with the murder of W. Douglas Coffman, of Laughtersville, Ky., failed to agree and was discharged Wednesday. The case will now go over to the next term of the Davidson county criminal court.

On the first ballot the jury is said to have stood nine for murder in the first degree and three for murder in the second degree.

At a former trial Morrison was found guilty of murder in first degree and sentenced to be hanged. The killing occurred at Springfield, Tenn., in the Christmas of 1892.

Morrison was raised in this county, near Elmo.

Remarkable Cure of Group. A LITTLE BOY'S LIFE SAVED.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Goodwin, S. D., and when I got it with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the plug out of his mouth in great distress. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on his feet to-day.—JOEL DEMONT, Irons, Iowa. GREAT LOSS

And Inconvenience By Sleet, Snow And Rain.

Telephone, Electric And Telegraph Wires Down And The Town a Vast Skating Place.

The rain, sleet and snow which began falling last Sunday night, culminated in placing roads, streets and sidewalks in worse condition than has been known here for years, probably the worst that has ever been known.

The almost continuous fall of rain Tuesday and Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night, at first froze as fast as it fell. Tuesday night the mercury began to rise in the tube, and by Wednesday morning the crust of sleet and snow which covered the earth probably to the depth of two or more inches commenced to soften. Wednesday, by noon it had thawed enough for the store-keepers to begin clearing off the sidewalks, but up to last night pedestrians still labored to get along, though the thaw was slow it was a great blessing, as the danger from serious falls was greatly diminished.

Dr. W. H. Henson fell and sustained serious injury, two or three ribs being fractured. The doctor is quite old and feeble and it will be some time before he is at himself again.

The whole town was one vast skating place, and go where you might you would see the boys on their skates flying here and there, reminding one of the fitting of swallows just before migrating.

Many of the boys played "hooky" from school just to "get their fill" of skating. Of course the attendance at the schools was small, as it was unsafe for little children, and probably the larger ones were only too glad to convince their parents that it was "impossible to get to school," and if they should get there, "there would be nobody else"—and, of course, the teachers couldn't "get there." There's no telling how long it was before the "stay-at-homes" were having a big time with their sleds and skates.

There is no way of estimating the damage done all over the city. A large number of roofs that had been in the melting sleet to great discomfort of many of the housekeepers, while several merchants and others sustained serious loss by leakage.

Hotel Latham will suffer considerably, the ceiling of the lobby near the clerk's office is in pretty bad shape. It is probable the entire ceiling will have to be replastered and repaired to make it look as Captain Whitlow will want it. A man was put to work Wednesday shoveling off the ice that had formed at the eaves around the entire building. Great slabs of ice, four or five inches in thickness, were thrown to the ground, nearly half a day's time being consumed in doing it.

The Phoenix Hotel had but one leak, damage nominal.

The rear of J. H. Anderson & Co.'s, three stores are in bad shape. The loss to goods and building will probably aggregate $1,000.

Dr. R. C. Hardwick will sustain a very slight loss at his stores—probably $3 will cover his loss.

Annoying leaks broke out in the First National Bank.

There were several bad leaks in the John Mooney store, and the loss is reported to be quite heavy—approximately $1,000.

Winter Bros., sustained some loss in their confectionery.

The rear part of the Kentucky-ian's composing and press rooms was almost flooded. The cylinder press received such a baptizing that it took some time to put in order, while type cases above were filled with water.

Mr. T. E. Bartley was a sufferer and does not want to go through with a like experience.

The new hotel at Cerulan leaked in many places and cost of repairs will run to probably $50, or more.

The I. C. bridge beyond Cerulan Springs was in danger of giving away, as the pier supporting the center was in almost a tottering condition. Should the creek spanned by it rise much higher it may yet be swept away. The afternoon train coming into the city Wednesday was delayed some time as an examination of the bridge necessitated the train being held up.

All trains over the L. & N. were behind time Wednesday, but so far we have heard of no washouts.

All the electric lines, the telephone lines of both the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies suffered considerably.

There was no communication with Louisville by the Western Union until 1.25 p. m., Wednesday.

W. T. Cooper & Co. place their loss at $50.

The damage to Forbes & Bro., is pretty heavy, machinery in the wagon department is in bad shape and also in the planing mill.

A negro by the name of Crooms came near losing his life by slipping on the ice while loading a hog-head of tobacco. When he fell his head struck the ground with such force that he was unconscious for about an hour.

Some of the trees in the front yard of the late Dr. Rodman have been ruined.

Mr. Cortez Leavell's fine lot of cedar are very much damaged. The foliage of the cedar is so heavy that it retained much more of the sleet, and in consequence the trees were broken down.

Mr. Frank Waller also lost several of the same variety, besides others.

Mrs. Nash, wife of Rev. C. H. Nash, pastor of the Baptist church, while standing on the front porch slipped and fell to the ground. One rib was broken and she sustained painful wounds on her head and back.

The daughter of Mr. Ben C. Boyd fell from a sled Tuesday. Her head struck a piece of ice with such force that she was unconscious when taken up and carried into Mr. Callis' house.

Incidents. Coasting from College hill was participated in by large squads of young people.

One of the coasters, starting from College hill, went sailing down Ninth street and never stopped until he got as far as Abernethy's warehouse.

Limbs as large as a man's leg are reported to have been broken off by the great weight of ice.

The manager of the telephone exchange says that it will cost the company about $400 to make repairs.

The public schools closed doors at noon Wednesday.

Little River was nearly out of its banks Wednesday at 5 o'clock.

The Opera House "sprung a leak" Tuesday night. Damage $300.

Don't say anything to the dealers about buying fruit jars, especially in car lots.

Prayer meeting attendance at all the churches Wednesday night was slim, as the electric lights were not on.

Will Hamberger is so mad about his heavy loss that he will not let his telephone say a word.

Mr. K. H. Holland has been greatly bothered. He has bored three or four wells to get water enough for the new ice factory. He even got enough for the Opera House.

The weather prophets say that February and March are to be worse than January.

Rev. J. H. Spurlio, of Sturgis, has accepted a call to Edinburg, Tenn., church, succeeding Rev. C. E. Pennyman, resigned. Rev. Spurlio was formerly pastor there for a number of years.

TOBACCO MARKET

Almost at a Stand-Still This Week.

Disagreeable Weather And Bad Roads Cause Light Receipts With Few Sales.

Very little has been done in tobacco circles this week, owing to the disagreeable weather, which has prevailed.

Receipts have been very light and sales were small.

On account of the dangerous condition of the roads, very little of the loose weed has been moved since last week and this branch of the business, which had been on a rush, is now practically at a stand-still.

Where the tobacco has been bulked down some stripping is being done, but it will take several days of clear, warm weather to produce anything like a reaction in the business.

RED HILL HAPPENINGS.

Runaway Accident Results Fatal—Hiner's Leg Broken.

Mr. S. H. Denton entertained a large number of relatives and friends at a birthday dinner last week, it being her birthday and also the birthday of two of her daughters.

Sam Tucker, a young man near here, died last Monday of paralysis. He was returning from Greenville about Christmas when his team ran away throwing him out of the wagon, injuring his spine. He has lain in a semi-conscious state ever since, being unable to move, until death released him from his sufferings.

S. H. Ruddell and Willie Stanley made a business trip to Hopkinsville last Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Hamby, of Nortonville vicinity, visited relatives here this week.

Mrs. Leslie Crick has been very sick for the last few days.

Mr. Jas. Stanley, and Miss Mary Stanley were quietly married one day last week. They are popular young people of this vicinity and we wish them much happiness in their new life.

Cleveland Berry, who is working in the mines at Empire, had the misfortune to get a leg broken a few days ago, but is getting along very nicely at present.

L. C. Price, who is in the telephone office at New Empire, was at home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hamby are visiting relatives in Hopkins county this week.

Herndon Letter.

Herndon, Ky., Jan. 28.—The sudden change in the weather is very unpleasant, but "what can't be cured must be endured."

Mr. Arlander Alexander, of near Cadiz; Mr. Jarred Coleman and Mr. Harry Young, of Bennettsburg, are attending school at this place.

Miss Katie Mitchell visited her parents Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Richard Bowling, who has been quite ill, is recovering rapidly.

Miss Martha Mason is quite ill with whooping cough.

Misses Susanne and Effie Dawson returned to their home Saturday, and we are afraid they will not visit us more soon, as Miss Effie is contemplating going "West" in the spring, and Miss Susanne is thinking of going South, but will not decide until she sees "more" about it.

Miss Daisy Tilly will visit her parents Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jake Sherrill, who has been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Young, will return to her home in Fullerton, Cal., to-morrow.

Rev. T. D. Moore will hold a protracted meeting at this place in the near future. The exact time has not yet been decided.

A certain old bachelor is visiting our town to day, and is still bragging about his "best girl," but watch out Jack we have heard there is a "Wall" between you and "Will."

"Goo Goo."

Humble Russian Priest Who Practices as Well as Preaches the Teachings of Christ.

In all Russia there is no man who is more honored than the humble priest who is known as Father John Chonstad.

FATHER JOHN OF CHONSTADT. (Russian Priest Noted for His Piety and Holiness.)

of all his courtiers. In like manner the present czar, it is said, has on various occasions sought counsel of Father John and has expressed his admiration of his lofty character and unselfish life.

It is not, however, as an adviser of monarchs that Father John is entitled to his title. It is because he is in the true sense a shepherd of the people. A son of the soil himself, he knows the joys and sorrows of the people through and through, and he has spent his entire life in an attempt to improve the former and mitigate the latter. In this work he has met with such signal success that most of his countrymen regard him as a saint, who can perform miracles whenever he pleases. And truly he does perform miracles, though they are not such as require the exercise of any supernatural power.

If he uses any magic, it is solely that of his own wonderful personality. A born philanthropist, he is waging incessant war against every form of sin and suffering, and so strong is his will that he works wonders where men and gods or low energetic would surely fail. Strange stories are told of instantaneous cures effected by him and of his unparalleled skill in obtaining money whenever he needs it for any charitable purpose. Millions of dollars, it is said, have already passed through his hands in this way. Yet he himself has remained poor, and there is not a priest in Russia who spends less money on himself than he does.

His admirers claim that he has done quite as good work in his own field as Tolstol has done in his, and furthermore, they maintain that the life work of the two men is intellectually and spiritually akin, since it is based on their love for humanity and is designed to prove the truth of the saying that love is the fulfillment of the law.

However this may be, no more picturesque figure than Father John's has appeared in Europe for a long time.

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE.

His Father May Direct Him to Visit the United States Some Time Next Spring.

Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany who may pay a visit to the United States next spring, is an unusually bright young man of the most genial character and the most charming manners. He will be 21 years old on May 6 of next year, and that event will be celebrated with great rejoicing in Germany. The young man is an officer in half a dozen Prussian regiments and is very popular in the army. He is expected to cross the Atlantic in a yacht being built especially for his use, and which his father will present to him when it is finished. The prince, by the emperor's desire, will, if he comes, study American methods of shipbuilding, which seem to have commanded themselves highly to the Kaiser's judgment. His private yacht will be a marvel of comfort and naval architecture. Prince Frederick will preside at the launching, which is to take place in March, and although he is supposed to be being ostensibly built for the emperor, it is understood that it will be Prince Frederick's private property and his principal birthday gift.

Twenty-three Years.

In view of the fact that the KENTUCKIAN has wound up its 23rd year of success, it is not out of place to say a word to its friends. The KENTUCKIAN has long since become a fixture of Hopkinsville.

All Newspaper Records in the City Have Been Broken by it.

No other paper ever published in Hopkinsville can point to a record of more than 20 years, with each year's business better than the one before. How many papers in that time have tried to run in Hopkinsville and fallen by the wayside? How many have failed to reach the goal?

An ocean cable 10,000 miles long would not serve the purpose for which it was designed if it fell short within twenty feet of the receiving-instrument.

It isn't the first end that counts. It's the last end. The start is nothing. Every contestant starts in a race, but how many finish? Almost any horse can begin in a race. Wish a few trials, ever an old plug may get away from the wire all right, but it's the coming under the wire for the last time that counts, it's being in the race to the finish that is alone valuable.

A great many things in this world are made to begin well enough, but they fall short.

The KENTUCKIAN as an advertising medium has never fallen short. As a news medium, occupying a field of its own choosing, it has for 20 years stood squarely upon its merits and succeeded

WHERE OTHERS FAILED.

Advertisers should bear this in mind. Money spent for Newspaper Advertising is an investment. It is not how much the advertising costs, but how large will be the returns. The mission of Newspaper Advertising is to Sell Goods. When the careful merchant has decided the important question as to the right medium, then, by attractive display advertising in that medium, he will inevitably increase sales. This result follows as surely as day follows night. The is the medium that pays, because it reaches the people. It has among its patrons advertisers who have been with it without a break for 12 to 15 years. It numbers the very best class of advertisers in their respective lines of business.

If you are not already a customer of ours, we want to make you one, and your advertising ONE OF OUR SPECIALTIES.

Newspaper advertising has become an indispensable adjunct to business. You need the advertising, we have the space to sell. Come let us do business with each other.

And to the reading public, remember we cover the entire news field twice a week for only $2 a year. At least one half of the news we give is in advance of other publications, because our facilities for gathering out-of-town news are equalled by none. If your time is out renewed promptly. If you have never taken the KENTUCKIAN, try it for 1902.

READ THIS.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 7, 1901. Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: I have sold your Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, for the past three years and from experience I can say I have never sold any kidney and bladder remedy of superior merit.

Most respectfully,
THOMAS D. ARMISTEAD.

Wanted at Ft. Worth.

Chattanooga, Jan. 28.—J. J. Flinn, wanted at Ft. Worth, Tex., on a charge of diamond robbery, was delivered to Texas officers and taken to Ft. Worth. Flinn and wife operated together and were captured at Knoxville a few days ago.

There's a story of a farmer and his son driving a load to market. Of the team they were driving one was a steady reliable old gray mare the other a fractious, balky black horse. On the way the wagon was stalled and the black horse balked and refused to pull. "What'll we do father?" said the younger man. "Well," said the old man, "I'll get on the ground on the old gray." That homely complaint to woman: "The gray mare's the better horse" suggests how often when the male of the strain to be borne it is laid on the woman's back. How often she breaks down at last under the added weight of domestic labor. Women who are dragging along wearily through life can gain real strength by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts the back in concentrated form the strength making material which working women use up more rapidly than it can be restored by Nature in the ordinary processes of nourishment and rest. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are universal favorites with women because they are easy to take and thoroughly effective in curing the consequences of constipation.

Edgewood's breeding is of the most fashionable strain, and contains crosses to all the blood that has produced the winners of the world. Such stallions are too few for the good of the trotting industry. Numbers of the best, were during the hard times just past, exported to foreign countries. Among the few left to fill the requirements Edgewood remains, though yet a young horse, has seen to his credit, with records from 2:24 to 2:10, which, in itself is proof sufficient as to his merit. His colts are all fine, large, good-looking individuals, good actors and trotters, and command the top prices when led in the sale ring. Gayety, 2:15, one of his handsome daughters, was sold to John Spian, of Cleveland, Ohio, last February for Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00). Eight youngsters by him were sold in John S. Lackey's sale in March last, by S. J. Fleming & Son, of Terre Haute, Ind., for prices that proved to them that there was still money in raising colts by the right kind of a horse.

Edgewood is the property of S. J. Fleming & Son, of Terre Haute, Ind., and ranks with such horses as Margrave, Axtell, and Jersey Wilks, which is proven by his list of colts with race records. His colts make fine roadsters and Matinee horses and are sought for that purpose as well as for race horses.

Edgewood, by Nutwood, (600) sire of 160 performers, including Lockheart, 2:08½, Manager, 2:06 and 12 others in 2:10 list. He by Belmont. He by Abdallah, 1:5. He by Hambletonian, 1:10. Nutwood's dam, Miss Russell, dam of Maud S, 2:03½, and six others. Her sons are sires of 223, and Edgewood's dam, Melrose, is the dam of Glenview Belle, 2:20½, and Frances, (2 yr.) 2:28½, made in 1901. His second dam, Moss Rose, dam of Nutrose, 2:22, and grand dam of 16, 3rd dam, Primrose, the dam of 6, from 3:30 to 2:20, 4th dam, Black Rose, dam of 5 in the 2:30 list.

This grandly bred horse will make the season at J. J. Van Cleave's farm on the Clarksville pike. For further information, address

WISDOM'S JEWELLED RING.

Dr. Hedley at the Opera House
Monday Night.

One of Dr. Hedley's great lectures will be given at the Opera House next Monday night. Holders of lecture course tickets will use them and a large number of others will be in attendance. The Logansport (Ind.) Journal has the following to say of this lecture:

"The second lecture in the Women's Club course was attended last evening by a large and enthusiastic audience, composed of those who are always interested in these excellent entertainments. Dr. James Hedley was the brilliant speaker, who kept the great numbers before him deeply absorbed. 'Wisdom's Jeweled Ring' was the subject of his lecture, and its substance was filled with imagery, poetry, philosophy, sketches, stories and beautiful word pictures, all helpful and uplifting. It was the verdict that no choicer and no more entertaining lecture had ever been given in Logansport."

A Good Recommendation.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. "What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. For sale by all druggists."

Must Be Settled.

"Historian" MacLay has been thrown out of his "haberdashery" berth in the Brooklyn Navy Yard and his "history" reported from the State Library of Maryland. But even this doesn't mean that "the war is over, let us have peace." A question like that between Schley and Sampson is never settled until it is settled right, and it will be fought out on that line by the justice-loving and demanding people of the United States if it takes all the summer of both time and eternity. An Attack of Pneumonia Warded Off.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annoto Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.

FEBRUARY FORECAST

Much Unpleasant Weather May Be Expected.Heaviest Winter Storms Will Occur During Last Half Of February and Early in March.

From Word and Works we glean the following summary of the weather for February, as outlined by Prophet Hicks:

February promises to come in during the existence of reactionary storm conditions. From Saturday the 1st, to about Monday the 3rd, fluctuating barometric readings will pass over the country, attended in many parts by cloudiness, rain and snow. Sharp change to colder may be looked for behind these reactionary storms, spreading from west to east, causing a marked fall of temperature even into the south. From about the 6th to the 10th falls a regular and decided storm period. About this time a warm wave may be expected, attended by lightning and thunder, with heavy rains south, turning to snow and blizzards in the north. General cold wave will follow. About the 13th to 15th it will react to renewed storm conditions followed by rain and snow squalls.

The indications are that some of our heaviest winter storms will fall during the last half of February and early in March.

From the 16th to 20th low barometer and rain, thunder and lightning will be the order during the first stages of the disturbances; but these will quickly give place to driving snow to the west and north, with change to high barometer, northwest gales and very much colder. Tropical thunder storms, with chances good for high and dangerous winds, are indicated on and touching the 23rd. Storms will be general over the interior about this time. Snow and blizzards will follow quickly on the heels of rain and thunder, and a very cold wave for the season will push close after the western sides of storms.

Much unpleasant, wintry weather may be expected in February and March.
